No. prev. doc.:	8111/05 COPEN 75 EJN 23 EUROJUST 24 8414/3/14 REV 3 COPEN 103 EJN 43 EUROJUST 70
Subject:	Replies to questionnaire on quantitative information on the practical operation of the European arrest warrant - Year 2013

Further to the questionnaire set out in 8111/05 COPEN 75 EJN 23 EUROJUST 24, delegations will find in ANNEX an updated compilation of the replies received with regard to the year 2013 and in ANNEX I and ANNEX II the replies to questions 6.2. and 12.

Questions to Member States as issuing States:

	BE	BG	CZ	DK	DE	EE	EL	ES	FR	IE	IT	CY	LV	LT	LU	HU	MT	NL	AT	PL	PT	RO	SI	SK	FI	SE	UK
1. How many European arrest warrants have been issued in 2013 ?	716		327 ¹	157	1932	88		582	1099	69		24	186	519 ²			9	548	665	2972	303	2238	56	335	91	226 ³

² LT: 352 EAWs have been issued for the purposes of conducting a criminal prosecution and 167 EAWs have been issued for the purposes of executing a custodial sentence.

³ SE: 103 issued for the purpose of conducting a criminal prosecution and 123 issued for the purpose of executing a custodial sentence or detention order.

	BE	BG	CZ	DK	DE	EE	EL	ES	FR	IE	IT	CY	LV	LT	LU	HU	MT	NL	AT	PL	PT	RO	SI	SK	FI	SE	UK
2.1. How many of these European arrest warrants were transmitted via Interpol?	4		454 ⁵	100	1932	none		582	818	none		24	none	6			9	40 ⁷	665	2203	8	2153	32	23	33	226

⁴ BE: No statistics available.

⁵ CZ: According to statistics of the Czech Police Presidium.

⁶ LT: No statistics available. In all cases requests for international searches of one person are transmitted via both channels: Interpol and SIS. However, in cases, when there is information concerning person's detention or exact location address in a particular country, EAW in respect of such a person is transmitted via one channel only: Interpol or SIS, depending on whether the particular country is participating in SIS. Priority is generally given to SIS channel.

⁷ NL: Approximately.

⁸ PT: Due to an internal Circular national authorities are advised to insert all EAWs in the SIS system as well as to send them to INTERPOL for diffusion in MS that don't have SIS and to remove the persons concern, in case surrender is granted.

	BE	BG	CZ	DK	DE	EE	EL	ES	FR	IE	IT	CY	LV	LT	LU	HU	MT	NL	AT	PL	PT	RO	SI	SK	FI	SE	UK
2.2. How many of these European arrest warrants were transmitted via the SIS?	793 ⁹		454	117	2417 ¹⁰	88		582	943	none		none	103	11			9	508	665	2405	12	2153	20	312	77	226

¹⁰ DE: It is generally expected that more European Arrest Warrants will be transmitted via Interpol than via SIS. This is due to the fact that the German authorities can transmit several international search requests for one person via Interpol. In SIS, however, only one search can be activated per person sought by German authorities. That this was not the case in 2013 is due to the fact that at the time of the survey, search requests has already been activated in SIS that could not yet be transmitted via Interpol, because the requirements for an Interpol alert (inter alia, the agreement of other authorities) had not yet been fulfilled. In addition, in some cases the search activated in SIS had already led to the arrest of the requested person before an Interpol search had been initiated. After consultation with the competent prosecution authorities, search documentation is in principle never transmitted via Interpol in such cases.

¹² PT: Due to an internal Circular national authorities are advised to insert all EAWs in the SIS system as well as to send them to INTERPOL for diffusion in MS that don't have SIS and to remove the persons concern, in case surrender is granted.

¹⁶ DK: as of August 2014. (99 persons were surrendered in 2013 and 7 persons were surrendered in 2014).

¹⁷ DE: No distinction is made between surrenders resulting from a European Arrest Warrant transmitted in 2013 and those resulting from European Arrest Warrants transmitted in 2012 or earlier.

¹⁸ EE: 2 persons were arrested in Estonia, 1 EAW was withdrawn, 3 persons were arrested outside EU and in these cases the extradition request has been issued, 33 persons are still declared wanted.

¹⁹ NL: Approximately.

²⁰ PT: During the year 2013, 61 persons were surrendered, 36 of which from the execution of EAWs issued during the same year and 25 due to the execution of pending EAWs.

²¹ SE: Regardless of when the EAWs were issued, 96 persons were surrendered to Sweden during 2013.

Questions to Member States as executing States:

4. How many European arrest warrants have been received by the judicial authorities of your Member State in 2013 ?	621		204	59	12091 ²²	55		1156	1034	223		72	39	116			14	835	401	333	140	608	63	70	40	115

²² DE: In 2013 a total of 12 091 alerts were introduced by SIS Member States based on a European Arrest Warrant (not including Germany, see 2.2). A total of 301 search requests were received via Interpol from States which use the European Arrest Warrant but do not participate in the Schengen Information System.

	BE	BG	CZ	DK	DE	EE	EL	ES	FR	IE	IT	CY	LV	LT	LU	HU	MT	NL	AT	PL	PT	RO	SI	SK	FI	SE	UK
5.1. How many persons have been arrested under a European arrest warrant in your country?	81		156 ²³	30	1924 ²⁴	49		880	837	1441 ²⁵		28	32	72			9	740	170	276	90	780	54	53	37	111
5.2. How many have been effectively surrendered ?	37		187 ²⁶	39 ²⁷	1141	49 ²⁸		762	691	907 ²⁹		28	32	72 ³⁰			8	563	238	211	73	685	45	38	37	105

²³ CZ: +15 imprisonment.

²⁴ DE: In the period under review, there were 1 924 hits on alerts under Article 26 of the Council Decision on SIS II (previously Article 95 of the CISA) by EU Member States (104 of which for the associated States of Norway, Iceland, Switzerland and Liechtenstein).
No distinction can be made here between actual arrests and mere indications of the whereabouts of a person sought in cases in which an alert has been flagged. The figure indicated includes cases in which the person sought was already either serving a sentence or remanded in custody in Germany, so there was no arrest, just superimposed detention where appropriate. However, it does not include cases in which arrest warrants are transmitted directly to judicial authorities without an alert being issued. In the period under review, a European arrest warrant was the basis for a decision on extradition in 1 349 cases.

²⁵ IE: Since commencement of EAW.

²⁶ CZ: 131 + 1 case from 2009 + 6 cases from 2010 + 9 cases from 2011 + 40 cases from 2012.

²⁷ DK: As of August 2014. (28 persons were surrendered in 2013 and 11 persons were surrendered in 2014).

²⁸ EE: 3 EAWs has been withdrawn by the issuing Member State, 2 EAWs were issued for the extension of surrender and 1 person regarding whom the EAW was submitted to Estonia is still wanted.

²⁹ IE: However, please note that a number of European Arrest Warrants may be transmitted by an issuing State for a single individual, therefore while 907 orders have been made, a number of these orders may refer to a single individual.

³⁰ LT: 18 of them base on EAWs issued in previous years.

- ⁴³ DE: Due to Germany's federal system, if the person surrendered travels by land, the law enforcement authorities of all the federal states through whose territory he or she is transported must be involved. This leads to delays. However, the 10-day limit is generally only exceeded by a narrow margin. The largest share of transfers were to Poland. It is not always guaranteed that the Polish authorities will promptly take charge of the requested person.
- ⁴⁴ NL: Reasons: ongoing prosecution in the Netherlands or ongoing execution of a Dutch sentence, request for asylum, health of requested person, no reaction of issuing judicial authority when requested to arrange the transfer of the person, etc.

SLOVAK REPUBLIC

The act on which the European Arrest Warrant is based does not constitute an offence under the law of the Slovak Republic.

- The requested person has been finally judged by a Member State in respect of the same acts provided that, where there has been sentence, the sentence has been served or is currently being served or may no longer be executed under the law of the sentencing Member State (art. 3 (2) EAW Framework Decision);
- the requested person may not, owing to his age, be held criminally responsible for the acts on which the arrest warrant is based under the law of Poland (art. 3 (3) of the EAW Framework Decision);

- the EAW was issued for a purpose other than conducting a criminal prosecution or executing a custodial sentence or detention order or did not conform with the requirements as to content and form (art. 1(1) and art. 8 of the EAW Framework Decision a contrario).

MALTA

The Court decided that the persons concerned were not wanted for prosecution but merely investigation.

LITHUANIA

SPAIN

A Spanish national did not consent to extradition for the purpose of execution of the sentence, criminal prosecution is statute-barred, ne bis in idem, double criminality.

SWEDEN

- The alleged criminal act took place before the requested person had attained the age of 15 (Article 3.3).
- The request for consent according to Article 27.4 (possible prosecution for other offences) was not granted since the requested person had already returned to Sweden after having served the sentence for which he had been surrendered from Sweden. The Swedish executing authority (a District Court) found that a new EAW should have been issued.
- The criminal acts were statute-barred according to Swedish law in two cases (Article 4.4).
- The European Arrest Warrant was issued for the purpose of executing a custodial sentence. The judgment against the requested person was however subject for review. Hence the Swedish executing authority found that there was no enforceable judgment.

In 4 cases the refusal to execute the European Arrest Warrant was based on non-compliance with Article 4a (on judgments rendered in absentia) of the Framework Decision on the European Arrest Warrant (2002/584/JHA, as amended).

In 1 case the refusal to execute the European Arrest Warrant was based on non-compliance with Article 3 (2) (on the principle of ne bis in idem) of the Framework Decision.

Furthermore, in 2 cases the refusal to execute the European Arrest Warrant was based on Article 4 (6) of the Framework Decision, according to which the executing judicial authority may refuse to execute the European Arrest Warrant if the European Arrest Warrant has been issued for the purposes of execution of a custodial sentence or detention order, where the requested person is staying in, or is a national or a resident of the executing Member State and that State undertakes to execute the sentence or detention order in accordance with its domestic law.

"Is there any other information regarding the operation of the European arrest warrant that you would like to give?"

ROMANIA

To our view possible improvements to the operation of the EAW are mostly related to legislative and operational (logistical) measures need to be taken at the national level of the EU member states. In general, communication and coordination need to be really improved both internally and between the issuing and executing states.

As an issuing state, we have confronted in almost all of the cases with the lack of feedback on receipt of the EAWs and also on the actual status of enforcement of the EAWs.

In general, the following information are missing: the exact period of arrest based on EAW (especially when the person sought is subject to proceedings in the executing state or under the enforcement of a custodial sentence applied by that state), the decision taken by the executing state (it is transmitted only upon request and after a very long period of time although as an issuing state we have to follow the line of the specialty rule), concrete information on the rule of specialty, the extension (comparing with the actual provisions of the FD) of the grounds of refusal or of the information needed for a decision to be take or of the conditions imposed to us by the executing state. In addition, when the EAWs were refused and the executing states decided to take over the execution of the custodial sentence, there is no info on how and when the custodial sentence was actually enforced.

We have been also confronted with some difficulties in relation to the taken-over procedure. The authorities of the executing states failed to actually surrender the person due the absence of the measures related to that person and to inform us in advance. It appeared that in some EU member states no internal coordination between the authority deciding on the EAW and the one in charge with the surrender really existed. This caused financial losses for our police authorities.

As an executing state, the most recurrent problem faced by our courts of appeal (executing courts) is related to the Schengen Alert (invalid or issued for other purposes than arresting the persons in questions - the legal basis of the EAW is not an arrest warrant but a court order requiring someone to appear in court) and the identity of the person sought.

In the end, we consider that a special attention has to be paid when EAW is doubled by a transfer of the person sought also subject to a custodial sentence within the executing state or a third one. Such transfer procedure may take place either between the EAW issuing and executing states or between the EAW executing state and a third one (EU member state). The number of such cases increased and an internal coordination within the executing (EAW)/issuing (transfer) state have to be very well assured (also due to the specialty rule applicable under FB 909) especially when the nominated central authorities are different.

POLAND

- In some cases the executing state did not provide information on how long the arrested person was detained prior to the surrender. This made it impossible to properly include that detention time in the eventual sentence;
- some States required an elaboration on the factual circumstances of the case and/or presenting specific evidence indicating that a crime had been committed.

MALTA

Kindly be informed that certain countries disregard the rule that scheduled offences are not subject to double criminality requirements and then expect requesting States (which implemented the Framework Decision correctly), to follow such a decision.

CZECH REPUBLIC

44 cases were concluded in different way (e.g. the surrender was postponed, cases the consent was given with the prosecution for other offences, the procedure has not been yet closed).
