

THE REPUBLIC OF LITHUANIA

Information to be submitted under Article 3 of Directive 2011/99/EU.

In accordance with Article 45(1) of Lithuanian Law No XII-1322 on the mutual recognition and enforcement of judgments in criminal matters by Member States of the European Union (consolidated version of 1 July 2019, hereinafter ‘the Law’), a European protection order adopted by the competent authority of a Member State during criminal proceedings and transferred to the Republic of Lithuania is recognised by the district court of the place where the individual in respect of whom the decision was taken lives (resides) if the case is being examined by a court, or by the examining magistrate if a pre-trial judicial investigation is taking place.

In accordance with Article 48(2) of the Law, the decision to issue a European protection order is taken by the district court of the place where the individual in respect of whom the decision was taken lives (resides) if the case is being examined by a court, or by the examining magistrate if a pre-trial judicial investigation is taking place.

Information to be submitted under Article 4 of Directive 2011/99/EU.

The Republic of Lithuania has not designated a central authority pursuant to Article 4 of Directive 2011/99/EU.

Information to be submitted under Article 17(3) of Directive 2011/99/EU.

The Republic of Lithuania does not make provision for accepting a European protection order that has been translated into another official language of the European Union. Lithuania only accepts European protection orders translated into the official national language (Lithuanian).
