

Data protection notice

1. For processing of personal data in the context of the EJM website

The EJM website, hosted by Eurojust, ensures that information is available and constantly updated in compliance with the provisions of Article 7, 8 and 9 of Council decision 2008/976/JHA of 16 December 2008 on the European Judicial network and it is committed to user privacy. The policy on protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the EJM website is based on the Regulation \(EU\) 2018/1725 on the protection of personal data by the EU institutions, bodies, offices and agencies.

“Personal data” means any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person (“data subject”). An identifiable natural person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, an identification number, location data, an online identifier or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity of that natural person (Article 3(1) of Regulation 2018/1725).

In principle, access to the information available on or via the EJM website does not require any personal data to be supplied by the user. However, to access the Restricted Area, to use certain online tools such as the Contact Points list, to subscribe to the EJM Newsletter, or to contact the EJM Secretariat, you may be requested to provide some information about yourself, such as, contact details (last name and first name, postal address, e-mail address or telephone number) when completing a form or accessing a dedicated area.

2. Context and Controller

As the EJM Secretariat collects and further processes personal data, it is subject to Regulation 2018/1725. Collection and processing of personal data on the EJM website are under the responsibility of the Controller, who is the Secretary to the European Judicial Network and can be contacted by using the following e-mail address: EJM@eurojust.europa.eu.

Legal basis of the processing

The legal basis for the processing operations on personal data is Regulation 2018/1725 and in particular Article 5(1)(a) or (d) thereof and Council decision 2008/976/JHA of 16 December 2008 on the European Judicial network.

Specific purpose of the processing and technical means

The EJM Secretariat will collect personal information only to the extent necessary to fulfil a precise purpose specified by the data controller for each online service (subscription to news and events, contact the EJM Secretariat). The information will not be reused for a purpose incompatible with the original purpose.

For the purpose of the security of the EJM website and to ensure that this service remains available to all users, all network traffic is monitored to identify unauthorised attempts to upload or change information or otherwise cause damage or conduct criminal activity. The EJM Secretariat will forward all evidence of criminal activity conducted on the EJM website to the appropriate authorities.

Types of personal data

name, surname, email, organisation, position, Country.

3. Who has access to your personal data and to whom is your personal data disclosed?

The EJN Secretariat may disclose information to third parties only if that disclosure is necessary for the purposes specified and only to the categories of recipients mentioned. The EJN Secretariat will not divulge your personal data for direct marketing purposes. The EJN Secretariat furthermore undertakes to take appropriate security measures to safeguard these data from misuse by third parties.

4. How do we protect and safeguard your information?

To protect the EJN website, and the Eurojust IT systems supporting it, from unauthorised use and to ensure that the systems are functioning properly, individuals using this computer system are subject to having all of their activities monitored by personnel authorised to do so by Eurojust.

5. How can you verify, modify or delete your information?

In case you wish to access your personal data, have it modified, corrected or erased, restrict the processing, object to it or exercise the right to data portability, please make use of the following e-mail address: EJN@eurojust.europa.eu by explicitly describing your request.

6. How long do we keep your personal data?

The data will be kept as long as the user does not unsubscribe to the 'news and events' or for a maximum period of 2 years if you 'contact the EJN Secretariat', and there is the necessity to provide follow up on activities or underpin the various contributions on judicial cooperation matters and instruments.

Beyond this period, data are deleted.

7. Contact information

You have the right to access, rectify or erase or restrict the processing of your personal data or, where applicable, the right to object to processing or the right to data portability in line with Regulation 2018/1725.

Any such request should be directed to the Controller, by using the following e-mail address: EJN@eurojust.europa.eu by explicitly specifying your request.

You may also contact the Data Protection Officer of Eurojust via email: dpo@eurojust.europa.eu.

8. Recourse

You have the right to lodge a complaint to the European Data Protection Supervisor (https://edps.europa.eu/data-protection/our-role-supervisor/complaints\_en) if you consider that your rights under Regulation 2018/1725 have been infringed as a result of the processing of your personal data.
