

L.N. 320 of 2004

EXTRADITION ACT
(CAP. 276)

Extradition (Designated Foreign Countries) Order, 2004

IN exercise of the powers conferred by article 7 of the Extradition Act, the Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Justice and Home Affairs has made the following order: -

PART I

General

1. This Order may be cited as the Extradition (Designated Foreign Countries) Order, 2004, and it shall come into force on the 7th June, 2004, hereinafter in this Order referred to as “the relevant date”. Citation and commencement.

2. In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires –

“the Arrangement” means the Council Framework Decision of the 13th June, 2002 on the European arrest warrant and the surrender procedures between Member States done at Luxembourg on the 13th June, 2002, adopted pursuant to Title VI of the Treaty, the terms of which are set out in the relative arrangement published in the Government Gazette dated the 1st June, 2004; Definitions.

“the extradition hearing” is the hearing in which the court is to decide whether a person in respect of whom a warrant as is referred to in article 5(2) was issued is to be returned to the scheduled country in which the warrant was issued;

“the Minister” means the Minister responsible for justice;

“Part II warrant” means a warrant referred to in article 5;

“Part III warrant” means a warrant referred to in article 62;

“the relevant Act” means the Extradition Act;

“the relevant date” shall have the same meaning assigned to it by article 1 of this Order;

“relevant arrest warrant for prosecution” shall have the same meaning assigned to it by article 5(3);

“relevant arrest warrant after conviction” shall have the same meaning assigned to it by article 5(6);

“requesting country” shall have the same meaning assigned to it by article 6;

“scheduled conduct” is a conduct in the list of conduct set out in Schedule 2;

“scheduled country” means a country listed in Schedule 1;

“the Treaty” has the same meaning as is assigned to it by the European Union Act, 2003.

Relationship between the Order and the relevant Act and transitory
provisions.

3. (1) Only the provisions of this Order, save where otherwise expressly indicated, shall apply to requests received or made by Malta on or after the relevant date for the return of a fugitive criminal to or from a scheduled country, or to persons returned to Malta from a scheduled country in pursuance of a request made under this Order, and the provisions of the relevant Act shall have effect in relation to the return under this Order of persons to, or in relation to persons returned under this Order from, any scheduled country subject to such conditions, exceptions, adaptations or modifications as are specified in this Order.

(2) The relevant Act and any applicable Order in force before the relevant date shall continue to apply to requests for the return of a fugitive criminal to a scheduled country pending in Malta on the relevant date and to requests made by Malta to a scheduled country before the relevant date, and any arrangement applicable between that country and Malta before the relevant date shall also continue to apply to those requests.

(3) Where a scheduled country has, in terms of the Arrangement, given notice that as the requested country the legislation in force before its legislation implementing the provisions of the Arrangement applies to acts committed before a date specified by it, the relevant Act and any applicable Order in force before the relevant date shall continue to apply to those acts and any arrangement applicable between that country and Malta before the relevant date shall also continue to apply thereto.

4. (1) Subject to the provisions of article 3, those countries listed in the Schedule to this Order are hereby being designated as foreign countries for the purposes of article 7 of the relevant Act in respect of requests for the return of fugitive criminals from or to a scheduled country received or made by Malta on or after the relevant date and any arrangement with any such country, other than the Arrangement, applicable to Malta before the relevant date shall, in respect of such requests, be deemed to have been revoked with effect from the relevant date.

countries.

(2) Subject to the provisions of article 3, the provisions of the Extradition (Designated Foreign Countries) Order (No.2), 1996, of the Extradition (Designated Foreign Countries) Order, 2001 and those of The European Convention on Extradition (Fiscal Offences) Order, 2001 in so far as applicable to any scheduled country before the relevant date shall with effect from the relevant date no longer apply to any such country in respect of requests for the return of fugitive criminals from or to a scheduled country received or made by Malta after the relevant date.

PART II

Extradition to scheduled countries

5. (1) The provisions of this Part apply to any arrest warrant as is referred to in sub-article (2).

Warrants.

(2) The reference to any arrest warrant in sub-article (1) is a reference to a relevant arrest warrant for prosecution or a relevant arrest warrant after conviction.

(3) A relevant arrest warrant for prosecution is a warrant issued by a judicial authority of a scheduled country and which contains –

- (a) the statement referred to in sub-article (4), and
- (b) the information referred to in sub-article (5).

(4) The statement is one that-

- (a) the person in respect of whom the warrant is issued is accused in the scheduled country of the commission of an offence specified in the warrant, and

(b) the warrant is issued with a view to his arrest and extradition to the scheduled country for the purpose of being prosecuted for the offence.

(5) The information is-

(a) to the extent applicable, the particulars mentioned in paragraphs (i) and (ii) of article 13(2) (b) of the relevant Act;

(b) particulars of any other warrant issued in the requesting country for the person's arrest in respect of the offence;

(c) particulars of the sentence which may be imposed under the law of the requesting country in respect of the offence if the person is convicted of it.

(6) A relevant arrest warrant after conviction is a warrant issued by a judicial authority of a scheduled country and which contains –

(a) the statement referred to in sub-article (7) and

(b) the information referred to in sub-article (8).

(7) The statement is one that-

(a) the person in respect of whom the warrant is issued is alleged to be unlawfully at large after conviction of an offence specified in the warrant by a court in the scheduled country, and

(b) the warrant is issued with a view to his arrest and extradition to the scheduled country for the purpose of being sentenced for the offence or of serving a sentence of imprisonment or another form of detention imposed in respect of the offence.

(8) The information is-

(a) to the extent applicable, the particulars mentioned in sub-paragraphs (i) and (ii) of article 13(2) (b) of the relevant Act;

(b) particulars of the conviction;

(c) particulars of any other warrant issued in the requesting country for the person's arrest in respect of the offence;

(d) particulars of the sentence which may be imposed under the law of the requesting country in respect of the offence, if the person has not been sentenced for the offence;

(e) particulars of the sentence which has been imposed under the law of the requesting country in respect of the offence, if the person has been sentenced for the offence.

6. A Part II warrant shall be deemed to be a request for the return of a fugitive criminal by the scheduled country where the warrant was issued and, unless the context otherwise requires that country shall be deemed to be a “requesting country” within the meaning of this Order and of the relevant Act.

Requests for return of a fugitive criminal.

7. The Attorney General may, in his own individual judgement, issue a certificate to the effect that the authority which issued a Part II warrant has the function of issuing arrest warrants in the requesting country and such certificate shall be conclusive of its contents.

Certificate by Attorney General.

Arrest

8. (1) Where a certificate has been issued by the Attorney General under article 7 of this Order this article shall apply.

Arrest after issue of certificate.

(2) Without the need of any further authority under the relevant Act other than the authority conferred by this article the warrant may be executed by a police officer not below the rank of Inspector even if neither the warrant nor a copy of it is in the possession of the person executing it at the time of the arrest.

(3) A copy of the warrant must be given to the person arrested as soon as practicable after his arrest.

(4) The provisions of article 15(1) of the relevant Act shall apply to the person arrested under this article.

(5) If sub-article (3) of this article is not complied with and the person arrested applies to the court to be discharged the court may order his discharge.

(6) If sub-article (4) is not complied with and the person arrested applies to the court to be discharged, the court must order his discharge.

(7) A person arrested under the warrant must be treated as continuing in legal custody until he is brought before the court under sub-article (4) or he is discharged under sub-articles (5) or (6).

Provisional arrest.

9. (1) A provisional warrant for the arrest of a person accused of an extraditable offence or alleged to be unlawfully at large after conviction of such an offence may be issued by a magistrate as provided in articles 14(1) and 14(2) of the relevant Act and such warrant shall be forthwith executed by a Police officer.

(2) The provisions of article 15(1) of the relevant Act shall apply to the person arrested under this article.

(3) At the initial hearing upon the person arrested under a provisional warrant being brought before the court as provided in sub-article (2) the following documents must be produced:

- (a) a Part II warrant;
- (b) a certificate under article 7 in respect of the warrant.

(4) If sub-article (2) or sub-article (3) are not complied with and the person applies to be discharged, the court must order his discharge.

(5) The person must be treated as continuing in legal custody until he is brought before the court under sub-article (2) or he is discharged under sub-article (4).

The initial hearing

Identity of person arrested.

10. (1) This article applies if-

- (a) a person arrested by virtue of a warrant mentioned in article 5 is brought before the court under article 8(4), or
- (b) a person is arrested under article 9 and article 9(3) is complied with.

(2) The court must decide whether the person brought before it is the person in respect of whom-

- (a) the warrant referred to in sub-article (1)(a) was issued,
or
- (b) the warrant referred to in article 9(3) was issued.

(3) The court must decide the question in sub-article (2) on a balance of probabilities.

(4) If the court decides the question in sub-article (2) in the negative it must order the person's discharge.

Date of extradition hearing etc.

(5) If the court decides that question in the affirmative it must proceed under article 11.

11. (1) If the court is required to proceed under this article it must-

(a) fix a date on which the extradition hearing is to begin, which date must be not later than twenty days from the date of the initial hearing;

(b) inform the person of the contents of the warrant referred to in article 5;

(c) give the person the required information about consent.

(2) The required information about consent is -

(a) that the person may consent to his return to the scheduled country in which the warrant was issued;

(b) that upon his consent to his return the provisions of article 15(5) of the relevant Act shall apply;

(c) an explanation of the procedure that will apply if he gives his consent;

(d) that consent must be given before the court and is irrevocable.

The extradition hearing

12. (1) Where a person in respect of whom a warrant as is referred to in article 5(2) has been issued is brought before the court for the extradition hearing the following provisions shall apply.

Decision on whether offence is an extraditable offence.

(2) The court must decide whether the offence specified in the warrant is an extraditable offence.

(3) If the court decides the question in sub-article (2) in the negative it must order the person's discharge.

(4) If the court decides that question in the affirmative it must proceed under article 13.

Bars to extradition.

13. (1) If the court is required to proceed under this article it must decide whether the person's return to the scheduled country is prohibited by reason of-

(a) the rule of ne bis in idem;

(b) extraneous considerations;

(c) prescription or lapse of time;

(d) the person's age;

(e) speciality;

(f) the person's earlier extradition to Malta from another scheduled country;

(g) the person's earlier extradition to Malta from a country other than a scheduled country;

(h) amnesty;

(i) death penalty.

(2) Articles 14 to 22 apply for the interpretation of sub-article (1).

(3) If the court decides that the person's return is barred by any of the reasons mentioned in sub-article (1), it must order the person's discharge.

(4) If the court decides that the person's return is not barred by any of the reasons mentioned in sub-article (1) and the person is alleged to be unlawfully at large after conviction of the extraditable offence, the court must proceed under article 23.

(5) If the court decides that the person's return is not barred by any of the reasons mentioned in sub-article (1) and the person is accused of the commission of the extraditable offence but is not alleged to be unlawfully at large after conviction of it, the court must proceed under article 24.

14. For the purposes of this Order, a person's return to a scheduled country is barred by reason of the rule of ne bis in idem if, and only if, it appears that he would be entitled to be discharged under any rule of law relating to previous acquittal or conviction on the assumption-

(a) that the conduct constituting the extraditable offence constituted an offence in Malta;

(b) that the person were charged with the extraditable offence in Malta;

15. A person's return to a scheduled country is barred by reason of extraneous considerations if, and only if, it appears to the court that the request for his return is being made for any purpose mentioned in article 10(1)(b) of the relevant Act or that any of the considerations mentioned in article 10(1)(c) of the same Act apply in his regard.

16. (1) A person's return to a scheduled country is barred by reason of prescription if prosecution for the offence in respect of which extradition is requested is barred by prescription according to the law of Malta and the acts constituting the offence for which extradition is requested fall within the jurisdiction of the Maltese criminal courts.

(2) A person's return to a scheduled country is also barred for the reason mentioned in paragraph (b) of article 20 of the relevant Act if, having regard to all the circumstances, it would be unjust or oppressive to return him.

17. A person's return to a scheduled country is barred by reason of his age if, and only if, at the time that he is alleged to have committed the extraditable offence he would have been because of his age exempted from criminal responsibility under the criminal law of Malta on the assumption-

(a) that the conduct constituting the extraditable offence constituted an offence in Malta;

(b) that the person carried out the conduct when the extraditable offence was committed or alleged to be committed;

(c) that the person carried out the conduct in Malta.

18. (1) A person's return to a scheduled country is barred by reason of speciality if, and only if, there is no speciality arrangement with the scheduled country as is referred to in article 10(3) and 10(4) of the relevant Act.

(2) Article 10(3) of the relevant Act shall have effect subject to the following provisions of this article.

(3) Article 10(3) of the relevant Act shall be read and construed as if for paragraphs (a) to (c) thereof, both inclusive, there were substituted the following paragraphs:

- (a) the offence in respect of which the person is returned;
- (b) an extraditable offence disclosed by the same facts as that offence;
- (c) an extraditable offence in respect of which the court gives its consent under article 55 to the person being dealt with;
- (d) an offence which is not punishable with imprisonment or another form of detention;
- (e) an offence in respect of which the person will not be detained in connection with his trial, sentence or appeal;
- (f) an offence in respect of which the person waives the right that he would have (but for this paragraph) not to be dealt with for the offence.

(4) The person returned may be dealt with in the scheduled country for an offence falling within sub-article (2) and committed before his return only if that person is given the opportunity to leave the scheduled country and-

- (a) he does not do so before the end of a period of 45 days starting with the day on which the person arrives in the scheduled country;
- (b) or if he does so before the end of the aforesaid period, he returns there.

(5) Article 10(4) of the relevant Act shall also apply to any arrangement as is mentioned in this article.

Earlier extradition to Malta from scheduled country.

19. A person's return to a scheduled country is barred by reason of his earlier extradition to Malta from another scheduled country if, and only if, -

- (a) the person was extradited to Malta from another scheduled country, hereinafter in this article referred to as the "extraditing country";

(b) under arrangements between Malta and the extraditing country, that country's consent is required to the person's return from Malta to the scheduled country in respect of the extraditable offence under consideration;

(c) that consent has not been given on behalf of the extraditing country.

20. A person's return to a scheduled country is barred by reason of his earlier extradition to Malta from a country other than a scheduled country if, and only if,-

Earlier extradition to Malta from country other than scheduled country.

(a) the person was returned to Malta from a country that is not a scheduled country, hereinafter in this article referred to as "the extraditing country";

(b) under arrangements between Malta and the extraditing country, that country's consent is required to the person's being dealt with in Malta in respect of the extraditable offence under consideration;

(c) consent has not been given on behalf of the extraditing territory to the person's return from Malta to the scheduled country in respect of the extraditable offence under consideration.

21. A person's return to a scheduled country is barred by reason of amnesty if the condition specified in paragraph (f) of article 11(2) of the relevant Act is satisfied.

Amnesty

22. A person's return to a scheduled country is barred by reason of the death penalty in the circumstances mentioned in paragraph (c) of article 11(2) of the relevant Act.

Death penalty

23. (1) If the court is required to proceed under this article by virtue of article 13(4) it must decide whether the person was convicted in his presence.

Where person requested has been convicted.

(2) If the court decides the question in sub-article (1) in the affirmative it must proceed under article 24.

(3) If the court decides that question in the negative it must decide whether the person deliberately absented himself from his trial.

(4) If the court decides the question in sub-article (3) in the affirmative it must proceed under article 24.

(5) If the court decides that question in the negative it must decide whether the person would be entitled to a retrial or, on appeal, to a review amounting to a retrial.

(6) If the court decides the question in sub-article (5) in the affirmative it must proceed under article 24.

(7) If the court decides that question in the negative it must order the person's discharge.

(8) The court must not decide the question in sub-article (5) in the affirmative unless, in any proceedings that it is alleged would constitute a retrial or a review amounting to a retrial, the person would have the following rights-

(a) the right to defend himself in person or through legal assistance of his own choosing or, if he had not sufficient means to pay for legal assistance, to be given it free when the interests of justice so required;

(b) the right to examine or have examined witnesses against him and to obtain the attendance and examination of witnesses on his behalf under the same conditions as witnesses against him.

Committal to custody to await return.

24. If the court is required to proceed under this article by virtue of article 13(5) or of article 23 the court must order the person to be committed to custody to await his return to the scheduled country in which the warrant was issued.

Duty of court of committal to inform person committed of his rights.

25. (1) Where a person is committed to custody under article 24, the provisions of article 16 of the relevant Act shall apply subject to the modification in sub-article (2).

(2) Article 16 of the relevant Act shall apply as if for the words "fifteen days" therein there were substituted the words "seven days".

Custody.

26. The provisions of article 17 of the relevant Act apply to any person remanded or committed for custody under this Order.

Discharge.

27. The proviso in article 15(3) of the relevant Act shall apply to any order discharging the person requested from custody under the provisions of this Order.

Matters arising before end of extradition hearing

28. (1) This article applies if at any time in the extradition hearing the court is informed that the person in respect of whom the Part II warrant is issued is charged with an offence in Malta.

Person charged with offence in Malta.

(2) The court must adjourn the extradition hearing until one of these occurs -

- (a) the charge is disposed of;
- (b) the charge is withdrawn;
- (c) proceedings in respect of the charge are discontinued;
- (d) the proceedings are put off sine die.

(3) If a sentence of imprisonment or another form of detention is imposed in respect of the offence charged, the court may adjourn the extradition hearing until the sentence has been served.

(4) If before the court adjourns the extradition hearing under sub-article (2) the court has decided under article 13 whether the person's return is barred by reason of the rule against ne bis in idem, the court must decide that question again after the resumption of the hearing.

29. (1) This article applies if at any time in the extradition hearing the court is informed that the person in respect of whom the Part II warrant is issued is serving a sentence of imprisonment or another form of detention in Malta.

Person serving sentence in Malta.

(2) The court may adjourn the extradition hearing until the sentence has been served.

30. (1) This article applies if at any time in the extradition hearing the court is informed that -

Extradition request.

(a) a request for the person's return has been received from a country other than a scheduled country;

(b) the request has not been disposed of;

(c) an order has been made under article 71(2) for further proceedings on the warrant to be deferred until the request has been disposed of.

Physical or mental condition.

31. (1) This article applies if at any time in the extradition hearing it appears to the court that the condition in sub-article (2) is satisfied.

(2) The condition is that the physical or mental condition of the person in respect of whom the Part II warrant is issued is such that it would be unjust or oppressive to extradite him.

(3) The court must -

(a) order the person's discharge, or

(b) adjourn the extradition hearing until it appears to him that the condition in sub-article (2) is no longer satisfied.

Appeals

Appeals by person committed to custody and by Attorney General.

32. (1) Subject to sub-article (2), the provisions of articles 18 to 20, both inclusive, of the relevant Act shall apply to appeals by the person committed to custody and to appeals by the Attorney General as the case may be and to an application for redress to the Constitutional Court under article 46 of the Constitution.

(2) Paragraphs (a) and (c) of article 20 of the relevant Act do not apply.

Time for extradition

Surrender not to take place before happening of certain circumstances.

33. (1) Subject to the modification in sub-article (2) the provisions of article 21(2) of the relevant Act apply to surrender to a scheduled country.

(2) Article 21(2) of the relevant Act shall apply as if for the words "fifteen days" therein there were substituted the words "seven days".

Surrender where no appeal or other proceedings.

34. (1) This article applies if-

(a) the court of committal orders a person's surrender to a scheduled country under this Order, and

(b) no appeal is filed within the time allowed under the relevant Act.

(2) This article does not apply if the order is made under article 45 or 46.

(3) Subject to sub-article (6) of this article and to article 38 (3), the person must be surrendered to the scheduled country before the end of the required period.

(4) The required period is-

(a) 10 days starting with the day on which the court makes the order, or

(b) if the court is informed that the judicial authority which issued the Part II warrant has agreed to a later date, 10 days starting with the later date.

(5) If sub-article (3) is not complied with and the person applies to the court to be discharged the court must order his discharge, unless reasonable cause is shown for the delay.

(6) If within the period mentioned in sub-article (4), and before he is returned to the scheduled country, the person files any proceedings as those described in article 21(2)(b) of the relevant Act even if he failed to appeal within the time allowed by the relevant Act, the provisions of this article shall no longer apply and the said article 21(2) of the relevant Act, as modified by article 33(2) of this Order, and article 35 of this Order shall thereupon apply.

35. (1) This article applies if -

Surrender
following appeal or other proceedings.

(a) there is an appeal against an order for a person's return to a scheduled country or other proceedings as those described in article 21(2)(b) of the relevant Act, and

(b) the person is not discharged by order of the Court of Criminal Appeal or of any other court.

(2) Subject to article 38(3) the person must be returned to the scheduled country before the end of the required period.

(3) The required period is-

(a) 10 days starting with the first day on which, having regard to article 21(2)(b)(c) of the relevant Act, he could have been returned; or

(b) if the court is informed that the judicial authority which issued the Part II warrant has agreed to a later date, 10 days starting with the later date.

36. (1) This article applies if -

- (a) the court orders a person's return to a scheduled country;
- (b) the person is serving a sentence of imprisonment or another form of detention in Malta.

(2) This article does not apply if the order is made under article 44 or 46.

(3) The court may make the order for return subject to the condition that the return is not to take place before it receives an undertaking given on behalf of the scheduled country in terms specified by the court.

(4) The terms which may be specified by the court in relation to a person accused in a scheduled country of the commission of an offence include terms-

- (a) that the person be kept in custody until the conclusion of the proceedings against him for the offence and any other offence in respect of which he is permitted to be dealt with in the scheduled country;

- (b) that the person be returned to Malta to serve the remainder of his sentence on the conclusion of those proceedings.

(5) The terms which may be specified by the court in relation to a person alleged to be unlawfully at large after conviction of an offence by a court in a scheduled country include terms that the person be returned to Malta to serve the remainder of his sentence after serving any sentence imposed on him in the scheduled country for -

- (a) the offence, and

- (b) any other offence in respect of which he is permitted to be dealt with in the scheduled country.

(6) Sub-articles (7) and (8) apply if the court makes an order for surrender subject to a condition under sub-article (3).

(7) If the court does not receive the undertaking before the end of the period of 21 days starting with the day on which it makes the order and the person applies to the court to be discharged, the court must order his discharge.

(8) If the court receives the undertaking before the end of that period-

(a) in a case where article 34 applies, the required period for the purposes of article 34(3) is 10 days starting with the day on which the court receives the undertaking;

(b) in a case where article 35 applies, the required period for the purposes of article 35(2) is 10 days starting with the first day on which, having regard to article 21(2)(b)(c) of the relevant Act, the person could have been returned or (if later) the day on which the court receives the undertaking.

37. (1) Subject to sub-article (2), this article applies if-

following deferral for competing claim.

(a) an order is made under this Order for a person to be returned to a scheduled country in pursuance of a Part II warrant;

(b) before the person is returned to the scheduled country an order is made under article 42(4)(b) or 71(2)(b) for the person's return in pursuance of the warrant to be deferred;

(c) the court makes an order under article 73(2) for the person's return in pursuance of the warrant to cease to be deferred.

(2) This article does not apply if the order for the person's return is made under article 44 or 46.

(3) In a case where article 34 applies, the required period for the purposes of article 34(3) is 10 days starting with the day on which the order under section 73(2) is made.

(4) In a case where article 35 applies, the required period for the purposes of article 35(2) is 10 days starting with the first day on which, having regard to article 21(2)(b)(c) of the relevant Act, the person could have been returned or (if later) the day on which the order under article 73(2) is made.

38. (1) This article applies if-

Asylum claim

(a) a person in respect of whom a Part II warrant is issued makes an asylum claim at any time in the relevant period;

(b) an order is made under this Order for the person to be returned in pursuance of the warrant.

(2) The relevant period is the period-

(a) starting when a certificate is issued under article 7 in respect of the warrant;

(b) ending when the person is returned in pursuance of the warrant.

(3) The person must not be returned in pursuance of the warrant before the asylum claim is finally determined; and articles 34, 35, 45 and 47 have effect subject to this subarticle.

(4) Sub-article (3) is subject to article 39.

(5) If, under the Refugees Act, the Minister responsible for immigration allows the asylum claim, the claim is deemed to have been finally determined when he makes his decision on the claim.

(6) If the person's asylum claim is rejected the provisions of article 21(2)(a)(b) of the relevant Act shall mutatis mutandis apply to any proceedings as are referred to in the said provisions which may lead to the reversal, annulment or modification of the decision rejecting the person's asylum claim in the same way as they apply to similar proceedings in relation to the court's order of committal.

Certificate in respect
of asylum claimant.

39. (1) Article 38(3) does not apply in relation to a person if the Minister responsible for immigration (hereinafter, in this article, referred to as "the Minister") has certified that the conditions in sub-article (2) or the conditions in sub-article (3) are satisfied in relation to him.

(2) The conditions are that -

(a) the scheduled country to which the person's return has been ordered has accepted that, under standing arrangements, it is the responsible State in relation to the person's asylum claim;

(b) in the opinion of the Minister the person is not a national or citizen of the scheduled country.

(3) The conditions are that, in the opinion of the Minister -

(a) the person is not a national or citizen of the scheduled country to which his return has been ordered;

(b) the person's life and liberty would not be threatened in that country by reason of his race, religion, nationality, political opinion or membership of a particular social group;

(c) the government of that country would not send the person to another country otherwise than in accordance with the Convention.

(4) In this article -

“Convention” has the meaning assigned to it by article 2 of the Refugees Act;

(b) a court receives a request for consent to the person being dealt with in the scheduled country for another offence;

(c) the request is certified under this article by the Attorney General.

(2) The Attorney General may certify a request for consent under this article if he believes that the authority making the request-

(a) is a judicial authority of the scheduled country, and

(b) has the function of making requests for the consent referred to in sub-article (1)(b) in that country.

(3) A certificate under sub-article (2) must certify that the authority making the request falls within paragraphs (a) and (b) of that sub-article.

(4) The court must serve notice on the person that he has received the request for consent, unless he is satisfied that it would not be practicable to do so.

(5) The consent hearing must begin before the end of the required period, which is 21 days starting with the day on which the request for consent is received by the Attorney General.

(6) The court may extend the required period if it believes it to be in the interests of justice to do so; and this sub-article may apply more than once.

(7) The power in sub-article (6) may be exercised even after the end of the required period.

(8) If the consent hearing does not begin before the end of the required period and the court does not exercise the power in sub-article (6) to extend the period, the court must refuse consent.

(9) The court may at any time adjourn the consent hearing.

(10) The consent hearing is the hearing at which the court is to consider the request for consent.

Questions for decision at consent hearing.

53. (1) At the consent hearing under article 52 the court must decide whether consent is required to the person being dealt with in the territory for the offence for which consent is requested.

(2) If the court decides the question in sub-article (1) in the negative it must inform the Attorney General of its decision.

(3) If the court decides that question in the affirmative it must decide whether the offence for which consent is requested is an extraditable offence.

(4) If the court decides the question in sub-article (3) in the negative it must refuse consent.

(5) If the court decides that question in the affirmative it must decide whether it would order the person's return under articles 13 to 31 if -

(a) the person were in Malta, and

(b) the court were required to proceed under article 13 in respect of the offence for which consent is requested.

(6) If the court decides the question in sub-article (5) in the affirmative it must give consent.

(7) If the court decides that question in the negative it must refuse consent.

(8) Consent is not required to the person being dealt with in the scheduled country for the offence if the person has been given an opportunity to leave the territory and -

(a) he has not done so before the end of the permitted period,
or

(b) if he did so before the end of the permitted period, he has returned there.

(9) The permitted period is 45 days starting with the day on which the person arrived in the scheduled country following his extradition there in accordance with this Order.

(10) Subject to sub-article (8), the court must decide whether consent is required to the person being dealt with in the scheduled country for the offence by reference to what appears to it to be the law of the scheduled country or arrangements made between the scheduled country and Malta.

54. (1) This article applies if -

Request for consent to further extradition to scheduled country.

(a) a person is returned to a scheduled country, hereinafter in this article and in article 55 referred to as “the requesting country”, in accordance with this Order;

(b) the court receives a request for consent to the person’s extradition to another scheduled country for an offence;

(c) the request is certified under this article by the Attorney General.

(2) The Attorney General may certify a request for consent under this article if he believes that the authority making the request -

(a) is a judicial authority of the requesting territory, and

(b) has the function of making requests for the consent referred to in sub-article (1)(b) in that scheduled country.

(3) A certificate under sub-article (2) must certify that the authority making the request falls within paragraphs (a) and (b) of that sub-article.

(4) The court must serve notice on the person that he has received the request for consent, unless it is satisfied that it would not be practicable to do so.

(5) The consent hearing must begin before the end of the required period, which is 21 days starting with the day on which the request for consent is received by the Attorney General.

(6) The court may extend the required period if it believes it to be in the interests of justice to do so; and this sub-article may apply more than once.

(7) The power in sub-article (6) may be exercised even after the end of the required period.

(8) If the consent hearing does not begin before the end of the required period and the judge does not exercise the power in sub-article (6) to extend the period, he must refuse consent.

(9) The court may at any time adjourn the consent hearing.

(10) The consent hearing is the hearing at which the court is to consider the request for consent.

Questions for decision
at consent hearing.

55. (1) At the consent hearing under article 54 the court must decide whether consent is required to the person's extradition to the other scheduled country for the offence.

(2) If the court decides the question in sub-article (1) in the negative it must inform the authority making the request of its decision.

(3) If the court decides that question in the affirmative it must decide whether the offence is an extraditable offence in relation to the scheduled country referred to in article 54(1)(b).

(4) If the court decides the question in sub-article (3) in the negative it must refuse consent.

(5) If the court decides that question in the affirmative it must decide whether it would order the person's extradition under articles 13 to 31 if -

(a) the person were in Malta, and

(b) the court were required to proceed under article 13 in respect of the offence for which consent is requested.

(6) If the court decides the question in sub-article (5) in the affirmative it must give consent.

(7) If the court decides that question in the negative it must refuse consent.

(8) Consent is not required to the person's extradition to the other scheduled country for the offence if the person has been given an opportunity to leave the requesting country and-

(a) he has not done so before the end of the permitted period,
or

(b) if he did so before the end of the permitted period, he has returned there.

(9) The permitted period is 45 days starting with the day on which the person arrived in the requesting country following his extradition there in accordance with this Order.

(10) Subject to sub-article (8), the court must decide whether consent is required to the person's extradition to the other scheduled country for the offence by reference to what appears to it to be the arrangements made between the requesting country and Malta.

56. (1) This article applies if -

Consent to further extradition to country other than scheduled country.

(a) a person is extradited to a scheduled country, in this article and in article 57 referred to as "the requesting country", in accordance with this Order;

(b) the Minister receives a request for consent to the person's extradition to a country, other than a scheduled country, in this article and in article 57 referred to as "the third country", for an offence;

(c) the request is certified under this article by the Attorney General.

(2) The Attorney General may certify a request for consent under this article if he believes that the authority making the request -

(a) is a judicial authority of the requesting country, and

(b) has the function of making requests for the consent referred to in sub-article (1)(b) in that country.

(3) A certificate under sub-article (2) must certify that the authority making the request falls within paragraphs (a) and (b) of that sub-article.

(4) The Minister must serve notice on the person that he has received the request for consent, unless he is satisfied that it would not be practicable to do so.

(5) The Minister must decide whether the offence is an extraditable offence within the meaning given by article 5 or article 8 of the relevant Act, as the case may be, in relation to the third country.

(6) If the Minister decides the question in sub-article (5) in the negative he must refuse consent.

(7) If the Minister decides that question in the affirmative he must decide whether the court would commit the person to custody to await his return under article 15 of the relevant Act if -

(a) the person were in Malta, and

(b) the court were required to proceed under articles 13 and 15 of the relevant Act in respect of the offence for which the consent of the Minister is requested.

(8) If the Minister decides the question in sub-article (7) in the negative he must refuse his consent.

(9) If the Minister decides that question in the affirmative he must decide whether, if the person were in Malta, his extradition to the third country in respect of the offence would be prohibited under article 10 or article 12 of the relevant Act or whether he would have decided not to order his extradition under article 11 of the relevant Act.

(10) If the Minister decides the question in sub-article (9) in the negative he may give consent.

(11) If the Minister decides that question in the affirmative he must refuse consent.

Return of person to serve remainder of sentence.

57. (1) This article applies if -

(a) a person who is serving a sentence of imprisonment or another form of detention in Malta is returned to a scheduled country in accordance with this Order;

(2) The person is liable to be detained in pursuance of his sentence.

(3) If he is at large he must be treated as being unlawfully at large.

(4) Time during which the person was not in Malta as a result of his extradition does not count as time served by him as part of his sentence.

(5) Sub-article (4) shall not apply if -

(a) the person was extradited for the purpose of being prosecuted for an offence, and

(b) the person has not been convicted of the offence or of any other offence in respect of which he was permitted to be dealt with in the scheduled country.

(6) In a case falling within sub-article (5), time during which the person was not in Malta as a result of his extradition counts as time served by him as part of his sentence if (and only if) it was spent in custody in connection with the offence or any other offence in respect of which he was permitted to be dealt with in the scheduled country.

Repatriation cases

58. (1) This article applies if an arrest warrant is issued in respect of a person by an authority of a scheduled country and the warrant contains the statement referred to in sub-article (2).

Persons serving sentences outside territory where convicted.

(2) The statement is one that -

(a) the person is alleged to be unlawfully at large from a prison in one territory, hereinafter in this article referred to as “the imprisoning territory”, in which he was serving a sentence after conviction of an offence specified in the warrant by a court in another territory, hereinafter in this article referred to as “the convicting territory”, and

(b) the person was serving the sentence in pursuance of international arrangements for prisoners sentenced in one territory to be repatriated to another territory in order to serve their sentence, and

(c) the warrant is issued with a view to his arrest and extradition to the scheduled country for the purpose of serving a sentence or another form of detention imposed in respect of the offence.

(3) If the scheduled country is either the imprisoning territory or the convicting territory, article 5(6)(a) has effect as if the reference to the statement referred to in sub-article (7) of that article were a reference to the statement referred to in sub-article (2) of this article.

(4) If the scheduled country is the imprisoning territory -

(a) article 5(8)(e) has effect as if “requesting country” read “the convicting territory”;

(b) article 12(2) has effect as if “an extraditable offence” read “an extraditable offence in relation to the convicting territory”;

(c) article 23(5) has effect as if after “entitled” there were inserted “in the convicting territory”;

(d) article 36(5) has effect as if “a scheduled country” read “the convicting territory” and as if “the scheduled country” in both places read “the convicting territory”;

(e) article 50(4) has effect as if “a scheduled country” read “the convicting territory” and as if “scheduled country” in both places read “the convicting territory”

(f) article 60(1) has effect as if “a scheduled country” read “the convicting territory”;

(g) article 60(2) has effect as if “the scheduled country” in the opening words and paragraphs (a) and (c) read “the convicting territory” and as if “the scheduled country” in paragraph (b) read “the imprisoning territory”;

(h) in article 60, sub-articles (3), (4), (5) and (6) have effect as if “the scheduled country” in each place read “the convicting territory”.

(7) This article applies for the purposes of this Order.

Supplementary provisions concerning extraditable offences.

61. (1) Sub-articles (2) and (3) apply for the purposes of articles 59 and 60.

(2) An appropriate authority of a scheduled country is a judicial authority of the scheduled country which the court believes has the function of issuing arrest warrants in that territory.

(3) The law of a scheduled country is the general criminal law of the country.

PART III

Extradition to Malta from scheduled countries

Issue of Part III warrant.

62. (1) A magistrate may issue a Part III warrant in respect of a person if-

(a) a police officer not below the rank of inspector applies to a Magistrate for a Part III warrant, and

(b) the condition in sub-article (2) is satisfied.

(2) The condition is that the Attorney General has given his consent to the issue of a Part III warrant in respect of the person and there are reasonable grounds for believing-

(a) that the person has committed an extraditable offence, or

(b) that the person is unlawfully at large after conviction of an extraditable offence by a court in Malta.

(3) A Part III warrant is an arrest warrant which contains -

(a) the statement referred to in sub-article (4) or the statement referred to in sub-article (5), and

(b) the certificate referred to in sub-article (6).

(4) The statement is one that-

(a) the person in respect of whom the warrant is issued is accused in Malta of the commission of an extraditable offence specified in the warrant, and

(b) the warrant is issued with a view to his arrest and extradition to Malta for the purpose of being prosecuted for the offence.

(5) The statement is one that -

(a) the person in respect of whom the warrant is issued is alleged to be unlawfully at large after conviction of an extraditable offence specified in the warrant by a court in Malta, and

(b) the warrant is issued with a view to his arrest and extradition to Malta for the purpose of being sentenced for the offence or of serving a sentence of imprisonment or another form of detention imposed in respect of the offence.

(6) The certificate is one certifying-

(a) whether the conduct constituting the extraditable offence specified in the warrant falls within the European framework list;

(b) whether the offence is an extra-territorial offence;

(c) what is the maximum punishment that may be imposed on conviction of the offence or (if the person has been sentenced for the offence) what sentence has been imposed.

(7) The conduct which falls within the European framework list must be taken for the purposes of sub-article (6)(a) to include conduct which constitutes-

(a) an attempt, conspiracy or incitement to carry out conduct falling within the list, or

(b) aiding, abetting, counselling or procuring the carrying out of conduct falling within the list.

The European framework list is the list of conduct set out in Schedule 2.

Undertaking in relation to person serving sentence.

63. (1) This article applies if-

- (a) a Part III warrant is issued in respect of a person;
- (b) the person is serving a sentence of imprisonment or another form of detention in a scheduled country;
- (c) the person's extradition to Malta from the scheduled country in pursuance of the warrant is made subject to a condition that an undertaking is given on behalf of Malta with regard to his treatment in Malta or his return to the scheduled country (or both).

(2) The Minister may give an undertaking to a person acting on behalf of the scheduled country with regard to either or both of these things -

- (a) the treatment in Malta of the person in respect of whom the warrant is issued;
- (b) the return of that person to the scheduled country.

(3) The terms which may be included by the Minister in an undertaking given under sub-article (2) in relation to a person accused in Malta of the commission of an offence include terms -

- (a) that the person be kept in custody until the conclusion of the proceedings against him for the offence and any other offence in respect of which he is permitted to be dealt with in Malta;
- (b) that the person be returned to the scheduled country to serve the remainder of his sentence on the conclusion of those proceedings.

(4) The terms which may be included by the Minister in an undertaking given under sub-article (2) in relation to a person alleged to be unlawfully at large after conviction of an offence by a court in Malta include terms that the person be returned to the scheduled country to serve the remainder of his sentence after serving any sentence imposed on him in Malta.

Return to extraditing country
to serve sentence

64. (1) This article applies if -

- (a) a Part III warrant is issued in respect of a person;

(b) the warrant states that it is issued with a view to his extradition to Malta for the purpose of being prosecuted for an offence;

(c) he is extradited to Malta from a scheduled country in pursuance of the warrant;

(d) he is extradited on the condition that, if he is convicted of the offence and a sentence of imprisonment or another form of detention is imposed in respect of it, he must be returned to the scheduled country to serve the sentence;

(e) he is convicted of the offence and a sentence of imprisonment or another form of detention is imposed in respect of it.

(2) The person must be returned to the designated country to serve the sentence as soon as is reasonably practicable after the sentence is imposed.

(3) If sub-article (2) is complied with the punishment for the offence must be treated as remitted but the person's conviction for the offence must be treated as a conviction for all other purposes.

(4) If sub-article (2) is not complied with and the person applies to a Magistrate to be discharged the Magistrate must order his discharge, unless reasonable cause is shown for the delay.

65. (1) This article applies if-

Service of sentence
in country executing
Part III warrant.

(a) a Part III warrant is issued in respect of a person;

(b) the certificate contained in the warrant certifies that a sentence has been imposed;

(c) an undertaking is given on behalf of a scheduled country that the person will be required to serve the sentence in that country;

(d) on the basis of the undertaking the person is not extradited to Malta from the scheduled country.

(2) The punishment for the offence must be treated as remitted but the person's conviction for the offence must be treated as a conviction for all other purposes.

66. (1) This article applies if a person is extradited to Malta from a scheduled country in pursuance of a Part III warrant.

(2) The person may be dealt with in Malta for an offence committed before his extradition only if -

(a) the offence is one falling within sub-article (3), or

(b) the condition in sub-article (4) is satisfied.

(3) The offences are-

(a) the offence in respect of which the person is extradited;

(b) an offence disclosed by the information provided to the designated country in respect of that offence;

(c) an extraditable offence in respect of which consent to the person being dealt with is given on behalf of the scheduled country;

(d) an offence which is not punishable with imprisonment or another form of detention;

(e) an offence in respect of which the person will not be detained in connection with his trial, sentence or appeal;

(f) an offence in respect of which the person waives the right that he would have (but for this paragraph) not to be dealt with for the offence.

(4) The condition is that the person has been given an opportunity to leave Malta and-

(a) he has not done so before the end of the permitted period,
or

(b) he has done so before the end of the permitted period and has returned to Malta.

(5) The permitted period is 45 days starting with the day on which the person arrives in Malta.

67. (1) This article applies if-

(a) a person is extradited to Malta from a scheduled country in pursuance of a Part III warrant;

(b) the person consented to his extradition to Malta in accordance with the law of the scheduled country.

(2) Article 66(2) does not apply if the conditions in sub-article (3) or the conditions in sub-article (4) are satisfied.

(3) The conditions are that-

(a) under the law of the scheduled country, the effect of the person's consent is to waive his right under article 66(2);

(b) the person has not revoked his consent in accordance with that law, if he is permitted to do so under that law.

(4) The conditions are that -

(a) under the law of the scheduled country, the effect of the person's consent is not to waive his right under article 66(2);

(b) the person has expressly waived his right under article 66(2) in accordance with that law;

(c) the person has not revoked his consent in accordance with that law, if he is permitted to do so under that law;

(d) the person has not revoked the waiver of his right under article 66(2) in accordance with that law, if he is permitted to do so under that law.

68. (1) Conduct constitutes an extraditable offence in relation to Malta if these conditions are satisfied- Extraditable offences.

(a) the conduct occurs in Malta;

(b) the conduct is punishable under the laws of Malta with imprisonment or another form of detention for a term of 12 months or a greater punishment.

(2) Conduct also constitutes an extraditable offence in relation to Malta if these conditions are satisfied -

(a) the conduct occurs outside Malta;

(b) the conduct constitutes an extra-territorial offence punishable under the law of Malta with imprisonment or another form of detention for a term of 12 months or a greater punishment.

(3) Sub-articles (1) and (2) do not apply, however, in relation to conduct of a person if -

(a) he is alleged to be unlawfully at large after conviction by a court in Malta of the offence constituted by the conduct, and

(b) he has been sentenced for the offence.

(4) Conduct also constitutes an extraditable offence in relation to Malta if these conditions are satisfied -

(a) the conduct occurs in Malta;

(b) a sentence of imprisonment or another form of detention for a term of 4 months or a greater punishment has been imposed in Malta in respect of the conduct.

(5) Conduct also constitutes an extraditable offence in relation to Malta if these conditions are satisfied -

(a) the conduct occurs outside Malta;

(b) the conduct constitutes an extra-territorial offence;

(c) a sentence of imprisonment or another form of detention for a term of 4 months or a greater punishment has been imposed in Malta in respect of the conduct.

(6) The relevant proceedings are the proceedings in which it is necessary to decide whether conduct constitutes an extraditable offence.

(7) Sub-articles (1) to (5) apply for the purposes of articles 62 to 67.

Treatment of persons returned to Malta

Restrictions on proceedings after return to Malta.

69. The provisions of articles 25 and 26 of the relevant Act shall apply to a person returned to Malta from a scheduled country.

Restriction on bail where undertaking given by Minister.

70. (1) This article applies in relation to a person if -

(a) the Minister has given an undertaking in connection with the person's extradition to Malta, and

(b) the undertaking includes terms that the person be kept in custody until the conclusion of any proceedings against him in Malta for an offence.

(2) A court, judge or magistrate may grant bail to the person in the proceedings only if the court, judge or magistrate considers that there are exceptional circumstances which justify it.

Part IV

Miscellaneous

71. (1) This article applies if at the same time-

Competing claims to extradition.

(a) there is a Part II warrant in respect of a person, a certificate has been issued under article 7 in respect of the warrant, and the person has not been returned in pursuance of the warrant or discharged, and

(b) there is a request for the same person's extradition from a country other than a scheduled country (hereinafter in this article referred to as the "competing request") and the person has not been returned in pursuance of the request or discharged.

(2) The Minister may-

(a) order proceedings (or further proceedings) on the warrant to be deferred until the competing request has been disposed of, if neither the warrant nor the request has been disposed of;

(b) order the person's return in pursuance of the warrant to be deferred until the competing request has been disposed of, if an order for his return in pursuance of the warrant has been made.

(3) In applying sub-article (2) the Minister must take account in particular of the circumstances in paragraphs (a) to (c), both inclusive, of article 21(4) of the relevant Act, as well as of the following matters-

(a) the place where each offence was committed (or was alleged to have been committed);

(b) whether in the case of each offence, the person is accused of its commission (but not alleged to have been convicted) or is alleged to be unlawfully at large after conviction.

Proceedings on deferred warrant or request.

72. (1) This article applies if-

(a) an order is made under this Order deferring proceedings on a Part II warrant in respect of a person (the deferred claim) until another extradition claim in respect of the person has been disposed of, and

(b) the other extradition claim is disposed of.

(2) The court may make an order for proceedings on the deferred claim to be resumed.

(3) No order under sub-article (2) may be made after the end of the required period.

(4) If the person applies to the appropriate court to be discharged, the court may order his discharge.

(5) If the person applies to the court to be discharged, the court must order his discharge if-

(a) the required period has ended, and

(b) the court has not made an order under sub-article (2) or ordered the person's discharge.

(6) The required period is 21 days starting with the day on which the other extradition claim is disposed of.

(7) An extradition claim is made in respect of a person if -

(a) a Part II warrant is issued in respect of him;

(b) a request for his extradition is made.

Proceedings where extradition is deferred

73. (1) This article applies if-

(a) an order is made under this Order deferring a person's return in pursuance of an extradition claim (the deferred claim) until another extradition claim in respect of him has been disposed of;

(b) the other extradition claim is disposed of.

(2) The court may make an order for the person's extradition in pursuance of the deferred claim to cease to be deferred.

(3) No order under sub-article (2) may be made after the end of the required period.

(4) If the person applies to the court to be discharged, the court may order his discharge.

(5) If the person applies to the court to be discharged, the court must order his discharge if-

(a) the required period has ended, and

(b) the judge has not made an order under sub-article (2) or ordered the person's discharge.

(6) The required period is 21 days starting with the day on which the other extradition claim is disposed of.

(7) An extradition claim is made in respect of a person if -

(a) a Part II warrant is issued in respect of him;

(b) a request for his extradition is made.

Re-extradition

74. (1) Article 75 applies in relation to a person if the conditions in sub-articles (2) to (6) are satisfied. Re-extradition: preliminary

(2) The first condition is that the person was extradited to a scheduled country in accordance with Part II.

(3) The second condition is that the person was serving a sentence of imprisonment or another form of detention in Malta (in this article and in articles 75 and 76 referred to as "Malta sentence") before he was extradited.

(4) The third condition is that the Part II warrant in pursuance of which he was extradited contained a statement that it was issued with a view to his extradition for the purpose of being prosecuted for an offence.

(5) The fourth condition is that a certificate issued by a judicial authority of the scheduled country shows that -

(a) a sentence of imprisonment or another form of detention for a term of 4 months or a greater punishment (in this article and in articles 75 and 76 referred to as “the overseas sentence”) was imposed on the person in the territory;

(b) the overseas sentence was imposed on him in respect of-

(i) the offence specified in the warrant or request, or

(ii) any other offence committed before his extradition in respect of which he was permitted to be dealt with in the territory.

(6) The fifth condition is that before serving the overseas sentence the person was returned to Malta to serve the remainder of Malta sentence.

Re-extradition
hearing

75. (1) If this article applies in relation to a person, as soon as practicable after the relevant time the person must be brought before the court for it to decide whether the person is to be extradited again to the territory in which the overseas sentence was imposed.

(2) The relevant time is the time at which the person would otherwise be released from detention pursuant to Malta sentence.

(3) If sub-article (1) is not complied with and the person applies to the court to be discharged, the court must order his discharge.

(4) The person must be treated as continuing in legal custody until he is brought before the court under sub-article (1) or he is discharged under sub-article (3).

(5) If the person is brought before the court under sub-article (1) article 76 applies.

Re-extradition to scheduled country.

76. (1) Subject to sub-article (2), if this article applies, this Order applies as it would if-

(a) a Part II warrant had been issued in respect of the person;

(b) the warrant contained a statement that-

(i) the person was alleged to be unlawfully at large after conviction of the relevant offence, and

(ii) the warrant was issued with a view to the person's arrest and extradition to the territory for the purpose of serving a sentence imposed in respect of the relevant offence;

(c) the warrant were issued by the authority of the territory which issued the certificate referred to in article 74(5);

(d) the relevant offence were specified in the warrant;

(e) the hearing at which the judge is to make the decision referred to in article 75(1) were the extradition hearing;

(f) the proceedings before the court were under Part II.

(2) As applied by sub-article (1) this Order has effect with the following modifications:

(a) in article 13(1), paragraphs (c), (f) and (g) are to be omitted;

(b) in article 38(2)(a), for the words "a certificate is issued under article 7 in respect of the warrant" there shall be substituted the words "the person would (apart from article 75(1) ) be released from detention pursuant to Malta sentence";

(c) in article 42(2)(a), for the words "following his arrest under this Order" substitute the words "under article 75(1)";

(d) in article 43(1), for the words from "arrested" to "issued" substitute the words "brought before the court under article 75(1) may consent to his return to the territory in which the overseas sentence was imposed".

Legal aid

77. The provisions of articles 570 to 573, both inclusive, of the Criminal Code shall mutatis mutandis apply to requests for legal aid in proceedings under this Order by a person arrested by virtue of a warrant under article 5 or article 9. Legal aid
